

VERMONT'S ODYSSEY OF THE MIND

2018-2019 Scholarship Form

Vermont Creativity Quest, Inc. offers a $500 scholarship to a former or present participant of Odyssey of the Mind in Vermont to be used by the recipient for higher (post-secondary) education. Division III (High School) participation will be viewed especially favorably. Applicants (High School seniors or first-year post-secondary school enrollees) may apply by completing the following steps. Former VCQ scholarship recipients may not apply.

Part I. Applicant information

Name
Mailing Address
City	State	Zip
Phone #	Email
Current School
Education Plans

Part II. Involvement in Odyssey of the Mind.

Year	School	Problem Name	Division (I, II, III)	Awards (tournament ranking, OMER's Award, Ranatra Fusca)	Other Information

Part III. List other school or extracurricular activities you feel are pertinent.

Part IV. Impact of Odyssey of the Mind on you.

Provide a one-page essay describing how the lessons you've learned through participating in Odyssey of the Mind (creative problem solving, team-work, etc.) are used in your everyday life. Do not exceed one page.

Part V. Letter of recommendation.

Attach one letter of recommendation from a coach, high school administrator, guidance counselor, or teacher which specifically addresses your creativity (NOTE: only one letter will be reviewed; additional letters will not be read or considered).

Part VI. Mail completed applications by March 11th, 2017 (receipt date) to:

Vermont Odyssey of the Mind
 Attention: Scholarship Committee
 120 Chalet Heights
 Huntington, VT 05462

verifying that the application has been received is the applicant's responsibility.

Successful applicants should be prepared to provide proof of acceptance or enrollment in a post-secondary educational institution or training center, and should be available to attend Vermont's Odyssey of the Mind State Tournament on March 17th, 2018 at Champlain Valley Union High School.

Important Note: Any award, if made, will be at the sole discretion of the Vermont Creativity Quest, Inc. Board of Directors or the Scholarship Committee and may not be contested or appealed. Photocopy this form as needed.